

The Flapper: Notes

1. This screw should be used to permanently attach the flap to the motor assembly. Though the flap attaches rather firmly on its own, using the screw would be prudent, especially if the assembly is rigged overhead.